DRASTIC MEASURES ADOPTED TO LESSEN LONDON'S DANGER

ENGLISH PAPERS REFER TO GERMANS AS "BABY KILLERS" AND "APACHES"

LONDON, JAN. 21.—ALTHOUGH THE NEWSPAPERS ARE MINIMIZING THE IMPORTANCE OF THE ZEPPELIN RAIDS WHICH RESULTED IN THE KILLING OF FOUR AND THE WOUNDING OF 31 PERSONS IN THE NORFOLK COAST REGION, EXTREMELY DRASTIC MEASURES ARE BEING TAKEN TO SAFEGUARD LONDON AND OTHER PLACES AGAINST AIR ATTACKS BY THE GERMANS. PRACTICALLY ALL LIGHTS ARE NOW BEING EXTINGUISHED AT NIGHT, AND LONDON IS ALMOST AS DARK AS A PROVINCIAL VILLAGE.

MANY NEWSPAPERS HAVE VIOLENTLY ATTACKED THE GERMANS, CALLING THEM "BABY KILLERS" AND "APACHES OF WAR."

FIERCELY FIGHTING AUSTRIANS IN RETREAT.

PETROGRAD, JAN. 21.—The Austrian forces sent to Bukovina to resist the Russian invasion of Hungary are now retreating toward Jacobini, but at the same time are fighting fiercely. No decisive result has been reached. Terrible cold and heavy snow storms are causing much suffering among the men of both armies.

Along the Bzura the Germans are making furious night attacks, but so far have been repulsed.

There will be illustrated talks on farming, trucking, fruit, fertilizers, plant diseases, live stock, forage crops and dairying, and Dr. Babb will discuss hog and hog cholera control. The meeting is open to everyone and the ladies are especially invited to attend. The institute will be of great interest and profit to all persons engaged in agriculture or stock raising and they should make a special point of being present. The place of meeting will be announced later.

Something About Catching a Ride

Written Especially for the Daily News

By DR. CHARLES FREDERIC GOSS

Author "Redemption of David Corson"

The winter guest was in a brown study. "What is the matter with you, now?" his neighbors on the hotel porch, inquired.

"I took a six-mile walk," he said, "and was overhauled and passed by by 13 automobiles, not one of whose drivers offered to give me a lift. At last, however, there came along the plainest possible kind of a man, in an old rattletrap of a wagon, and he stopped his horse and asked me if I didn't want to ride. Now, what do you make of that?" he asked.

"Of what?" somebody wanted to know.

"Why, of the fact that that baker's dozen of men who owned expensive cars and gave every sign of wealth and culture, should pass me by as if I were a dog, and only the poorest appearing person on the road—a farmer. I should think—the driver of a blind, old, knock-kneed horse, should treat me as if I might be tired and in need of a little help?"

"I'll tell you about that," replied a big, comfortable looking person with a gentle voice and smile. "There was a friend of mine who offered a ride to a man and had the misfortune to 'turn turtle,' while he had him in his car. The fellow was hurt, and badly, too, and, without a moment's hesitation, sued my friend for a thousand dollars' damage and won his case! I thereupon gave orders to my chauffeur never to give a ride to anybody on the road, no matter who!"

"Great Scott!" the Winter Guest replied.

"I should think so," everybody groaned.

If you want to grapple with some difficult problems, there is your chance. Is it a man's duty to take these risks in his efforts to exhibit Christian feeling for his fellowmen? It isn't any joke to be sued for a thousand dollars, mind you, by the very man whom you have done a favor to. Quite enough, that was, to embitter any but the kindest human heart. No wonder automobile drivers have grown shy of offering to give their fellowmen a lift! It will keep me from judging them too harshly when they pass me by some time. And yet, how many risks we have to take in doing gracious deeds! Doctors and nurses have to take the risk of catching fevers when they stand by the bedside of the sick. Judges have to take the risk of being murdered by the angry men they sentence to the "pen!"

Farmers have to take the risks of having their barns burned down by the tramps to whom they grant their shelter in a time of storm. Philanthropists have to take the risks of pauperizing people whom they help. If you grow weary with your game of cards tonight, just lay them down and thresh this question of casuistry out until you find a grain or two of truth.

The Winter Guest believed we have to take some risk.

ALLANDALE.

ALLANDALE, Jan. 19.—The guests at Ye Inn during the week were Mr. and Mrs. Emory of Boston, Mass., Frank Taft, New York, C. G. Burgoyne, Daytona, Fla., Jones McCrorey and wife, Grand Rapids, Mich., Paul Orchard, Arcadia, Fla., Mrs. J. N. Hinkson, Middletown, Conn., Mrs. S. J. Fatsinger, Catasauqua, Pa. These last two ladies are here for at least a part of the winter and are very much pleased with Allandale and think strongly of buying and building a winter home.

On Sunday the following guests for dinner: E. H. Herriek, Bogota, N. J.; George Dunnehal, New York City; J. N. Pad, W. R. Baker and wife, Mrs. Emerly Child, Mrs. L. Hobbs, Miss Degraffendied, Miss Albertson, Mrs. and Miss Brock, J. W. Rikeman and wife.

The work on Ridgewood avenue extension is progressing. The cut is to extend south to within two hundred feet of the old Fozzard house. From the river west will be another hundred fashioned dance is planned for the older people that will come off soon. Mitchell Hunter is making improvements on his house on Ridgewood avenue, building rock porch columns, and rock steps and front under porch. This adds very much to the looks of his house.

This certainly has not been a Florida winter and a change would be acceptable, but when we think of war and earthquakes, zero weather, snow storms that other parts of the world are getting we should feel that what we are getting is beautiful and take it all with a smile.

ON THE NATAL DAY OF HERSELF AND MOTHER MISS STEWART TO WED

TODAY IS ALSO THE WEDDING DAY OF BRIDE'S MOTHER.
CEREMONY TO OCCUR THIS EVENING.

On her own birthday anniversary, which is also the birthday as well as wedding anniversary of her mother, Miss Fay Stewart will be united in marriage this evening to S. D. Riddles at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Horace F. Stewart, at Daytona Beach. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. H. H. Bowen. Miss Stewart and Mr. Riddles were to have been married in the spring, but the acceptance by Mr. Riddles of a lucrative position in Cleveland, O., hastened the ceremony. The newlyweds will leave this evening by motor for probably DeLand and tomorrow will start for their future home in Cleveland.

The birthday anniversary of Miss Stewart and her mother, by a strange coincidence, fall upon the same date, and following the footsteps of her mother, Miss Stewart's wedding day will be the same.

Both Miss Stewart and Dr. Riddles have many friends who will join in wishing them a life of wedded bliss.

Eccentric Inn Names.

We are losing most of our eccentric inn names, but in Germany they are adding to them. Berlin now boasts the "Comfortable Chicken," "Cold Frog," "Stiff Dog," "Thirsty Pelican," "Dirty Parlor," "Musical Cats," "Boxers' Den," and "Lame Louse." Leipzig has "The Old Straw Bag," Stadtohen an "Open Bungalow," and the vicinity of many a cemetery in the Fatherland is graced by a "Last Tear"—London Chronicle.

SEABREEZE AND DAYTONA BEACH

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wood arrived last week from Bourbon, Ind., and have secured apartments in the Orr apartment house.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Niven and son, of Thorntown, Ind., have secured apartments in Miss Shepherd's cottage on North Atlantic avenue.

Dr. Hawk filled the appointment at the M. E. church at the Sunday night service, and preached a splendid sermon on "I am come that you may have light."

Those rooms should be rented; that furnished house let. Try a want ad in this department.

Among other roomers, the following family have located within the week in the Orr cottages on Seabreeze avenue: Mrs. Bibbins, of Detroit; Mrs. Ziplin, Indiana.

Mr. and Mrs. D. McCarty, of Erie, Pa., arrived Sunday and are located for the present in the John Orr cottage on Seabreeze avenue. Mr. McCarty owns several valuable pieces of property in Seabreeze.

Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Campbell, of Schenectady, N. Y., are again occupying an apartment in the Orr apartment house. They have a number of friends in Seabreeze and Daytona Beach who are well pleased at their coming.

Chas. Newman, of Birmingham, Ala., came down as usual to escape the cold weather, and is guest at the Breakers. Mr. Newman has spent ten of twelve seasons in Daytona Beach and vicinity and is a good booster for this part of the East Coast.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Silsby and young daughter and friend, Miss Campbell, of Lyndenville, Vt., arrived recently and located Monday in the Herbert Wetherby home on North Peninsula drive, for the season. Mr. Silsby is interested in the recent land purchase made by W. W. Marshall.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Ayres are entertaining as their guest, Hon. Alva M. Cummins, of Lansing, Mich., who is chairman of the committee appointed by Governor Ferris of Michigan to codify the Michigan law to be presented to the present legislature in order to simplify court proceedings in the state of Michigan.

Sunday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Holmes drove their car down to New Smyrna, Dr. Cook accompanying them. They brought back with them Rev. Dr. Matthew C. Hawk, formerly of Detroit, Mich., and pastor for many years of the church to which Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Ayres and their daughter, Mrs. Holmes, belonged.

John DeWolfe and mother are pleasantly domiciled in their winter home on Earl street. The cottage was erected on the rear lot last winter, and has recently been moved forward, and the finishing touches are being put on by Mr. DeWolfe, who is an electrician by profession, but has an all round ability which comes in good play about this time.

Tastes Change.
Funny that the very fellow who begs a girl for a lock of her hair in the courtship days when he kisses it so fondly will swear like a trooper if he finds one of them in the butter after he is married.

A CHURCH BEE ON THE CHURCH LAWN

Today the members of the Tourist class held a church bee on the church lawn, beginning at 9:30 in the forenoon. The purpose of the meeting is to beautify the grounds by seed planting, cleaning up the grounds, etc. Dinner will be served to the workers in the church basement, and in the afternoon a social hour will be enjoyed. Mr. and Mrs. Collier are at the head of the movement, as members of the social committee.

OFFICER SLAYS 15

Performs Daring Exploit With Homemade Bombs.

Crawls in Dark to German Trenches, Destroys Machine Gun and Kills Enemy's Soldiers With Hand Grenades Made by Himself.

By FRANKLIN P. MERRICK.
International News Service Correspondent.
Paris.—With three bombs made by himself, an officer of engineers of the British army has just performed an exploit worthy of chivalry. He crept up to the German trenches and killed 15 Germans, besides destroying a machine gun.

This sapper was stationed at a point of the battle line where the British and German trenches are near to each other. He fitted up a laboratory in a farm house in which he was quartered and here he began to manufacture hand grenades. These he decided to test personally.

A few dozen yards before the first British line was a German trench in which was posted a machine gun that had killed many English.

The trench was cleverly built in sections, so that the British could not capture one point and then fire down the trench. It was like a row of old-fashioned church pews, each pew say six yards long with about five Germans in it. The machine gun was posted in a pew so situated that it could sweep the whole front for a long distance. Before it was a shield and a parapet.

The British officer selected a time when it was quite dark and crawled carefully to within about a dozen yards of the machine gun's position.
He carried one of his homemade bombs in each side pocket and another in his hand. He hurled the first right in next to the machine gun.

There was a terrific explosion and the single man in the trench to remain alive screamed with pain. The machine gun was hopelessly wrecked.

The Germans along the line did not realize what had happened. The bold sapper was not content with the damage he had wrought, so instead of crawling back to safety, he leaped into the trench with the machine gun and the dead and dying Germans. The compartments of the trench were connected by passageways, making an angle. The Germans in the compartment next to that of the machine gun were in an uproar, firing in the direction of the British lines and evidently believing the allies were delivering a general attack. The Englishman hurled his second bomb among them.
Five or six Germans were torn to shreds. Into the second compartment the sapper crawled and cast this third and last bomb into the next group along the line. The effect was as great as before.

To clear out the three compartments of the trench had been the work of not more than three minutes.
After completing his task, the officer wriggled back to his own lines un-harmd.

IS NOW CALLED KAISERBERG

Germans Give New Name to Town of Czenstochowa in Russian Poland.

Petrograd.—You will look in vain for the city of Kaiserberg on the map of Russian Poland, and little will you suspect that this name stands with the Germans for the ancient city of Czenstochowa, but Kaiserberg it is at present, and the inhabitants are forced, under threat of severe penalties, to speak of it as such.

This is another proof of the Germans' tactful policy toward the Poles whom the invaders are supposed to win over to their side, for Czenstoch-owa to the Poles is what Mecca is to the Mussulmans, and no greater insult to the national pride and faith could be imagined than the renaming of the ancient fortress.

"Kaiserberg" now, Kaisergrab (kaiser's grave) in a few weeks hence," is the prophecy of the refugees from the invaded part of Russian Poland.

PORT ORANGE.

PORT ORANGE, Jan. 19. — E. L. Crane, cashier of the Tapp Bank, Tippecanoe City, O., who has been spending some days at Trilobites, has returned home, regretting that he was unable to stay longer.

Herbert Carrow has moved from Oak Hill to Roy McDonald's house, west of the railroad, and has arranged to make his home here. As "Hub" was raised here he comes back to a lot of his friends.

M. H. Briggs, Eau Claire, Wis., is visiting his grandfather, M. A. Briggs. H. Young has his house well under way. R. R. Mathews, Wantagh, L. I., Mr. Young's home, is doing the work.

Gust Johnson has the pillars set and is getting lumber on the ground for a new house on Ridgewood avenue.

A new girl weighing a few pounds, arrived at the Foster home, west of the hammock a few days since.

James D. Riddell has the siding on his house and it shows up very nicely.

A neat, up-to-date iron fence is being put along the front of the Briggs place. This, with the sidewalk and retaining wall recently put down, will greatly improve the appearance of this property, as well as this part of town.

Frank Zimmerman drove Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Zimmerman to Deland in his car Monday. The two last named will visit St. Petersburg and other points, but expect to return here in a short time.

Fishing for sheepshead continues good. Fine strings are being taken, some of which are very large. The largest reported being taken by Mr. Brethford weighed 13½ pounds.

The gasoline yacht "Anna May," built by Perry Williams, is being fitted out by her owner for a cruise to Miami.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Morgan have had a recent addition to their family—all doing well.

Dr. George Habb, who is in the government employ to visit Farmers' Institutes and lecture on matters pertaining to agriculture after lecturing at New Smyrna on Saturday paid a visit to his old friends, the Thompsons, living west of the hammock, stopping until Sunday.

Several autos got stuck in a bad place in the road in front of W. L. McDonald's before it was reported and repaired.

The recent rains have made horrible roads. Those west of here through the hammock are well nigh impassable.

Chas. Emrick, of Troy, wife and parter and wife, Dayton, O., paid a visit to the county seat on Monday, returning in a heavy rain.

A proposition for Port Orange and Allandale to join the proposed bonding district for brick roads, seems to be receiving favorable consideration.

At the last council meeting a committee consisting of F. M. Townsend, C. Christianity and J. R. Case was appointed to arouse interest and obtain assistance from the county and otherwise in order to put Ridgewood avenue in a condition befitting a portion of the "John Anderson Highway," which the slender resources of the town of Port Orange will not enable her to do.

This is one of the most travelled roads in the county, and being on low wet ground, narrow and with but a thin hard surface is one of the hardest roads in the county to keep in repair. It being on the great through route down the East Coast the large number of cars passing wears it out very fast. It would seem that the burden of keeping up this great thoroughfare ought not to be left to this small municipality.

Ranson's Prepared Humus Soil Builder and Plant Food

In these strenuous days of intensive farming, getting an extra crop out of old, worn, and unproductive soil, is the first and most important thing to think of. Ranson's Prepared Humus is the best. It builds up the soil, makes it rich in nitrogen and other elements essential to plant growth.

Ranson's Prepared Humus is wonderfully beneficial when applied freely to trees, shrubs, lawns, flower beds, and all kinds of trees, shrubbery and potting plants. One ton will build up soil as much as commercial fertilizer; is free from acids, alkalis and salts. It is longer than barnyard manure. Humus is easily handled, may be applied at any time, is odorless and sanitary. Manure is disagreeable, carries weed seeds, and is a favorite breeding place for flies.

No Need to Plant Legumes and Wait for Vines to Rot

Your soil is not so fertile for food. Give it a liberal supply of Ranson's Prepared Humus. One customer took some and wrote his name with it on the lawn. In a short time the letters stood out plainly above the rest of the grass. Read the testimonial.

TALENTED ETCHING ARTIST SPENDS WEEK IN DAYTONA

George Walter Chandler, who came to Daytona a week or more ago from Milwaukee, Wis., and has been with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Chandler at their winter home, 133 South Ridgewood avenue, departed Wednesday evening for Havana, Cuba, a trip by boat from that city through the Panama canal and along the western coast of South America, with probably a trip across South America and an ocean voyage to New York, from which city he will return to Milwaukee in April about the time Mr. and Mrs. Chandler go north. Mr. Chandler ranks high as an etching artist and his parents have many fine specimens of his skill at their Ridgewood avenue home. Mr. Chandler has been living in Paris, France, for the past 11 years, but has traveled extensively and his subjects include scenes from Italy, northern Africa and elsewhere as well as from France. He returned to this country last September to await the resumption of normal conditions in Europe.

BOSTWICK PARK SALE OPENS MONDAY, 25TH

HIGH CLASS, RESTRICTED RESIDENTIAL LOTS, WITH ALL IMPROVEMENTS NOW BEING MADE, PLACED ON THE MARKET—OPENING SALE MONDAY.

The opening sale of Bostwick Park will mark an epoch in the history of real estate development in this section. Never before has there been placed on the market a property so well located and with all the modern improvements and fully restricted so as to always insure a high class neighborhood.

All the advantages a man could desire for a home or investment is found in Bostwick Park, located at the end of the South bridge, five minutes from the business center of Daytona. This tract has advantages that few places in this state enjoy. This tract offers to those who desire to locate their homes there the pleasure of the salt water and the finest ocean beach in the world on one side and the deep water of the Halifax river on the other, while it is within easy walking distance of the heart of the business center of Daytona.

Naturally those who buy first will get in on the "ground floor" as far as prices and location are concerned. As the buildings go up prices will rise in proportion. There is now being built on the river front of Bostwick Park a palatial winter home by Mr. E. L. King of Minnesota, which when completed will be the most costly home in this section. A ten-thousand dollar residence has been built upon the ocean front by Mr. Bellevue. Mr. Edward Oates, a leading attorney of this city, has plans made for a home which will cost more than five thousand dollars and will be built on the corner of Silver Beach avenue and Gamble place.

The growth of a city is dependent upon the annexation of new territory, and upon the bringing in of new residents. Daytona and Daytona Beach will be greatly benefited by the development of Bostwick Park. Other cities in the state have spread out, taking in miles of territory and doubling and trebling in population in a few years. Daytona has had a wonderful, steady, substantial growth for the real growth has just commenced.

F. N. Conrad and Bert Fish are the owners of Bostwick Park, and the property is being developed and sold by the Kagan-Marshall Realty Company, with offices at 231 South Beach street, an advertisement of the opening sale appearing elsewhere in this paper.

A large force of men is now at work on the improvements at Bostwick Park, the streets are being graded and every street made a boulevard, with the exception of Atlantic avenue and Peninsula drive, palm trees, eucalyptus and ornamental shrubs planted in the parking in the center and hard-surfaced with shell on both sides, five-foot concrete sidewalks will be built in front of every lot, ornamental columns of coquina rock at the entrances of the streets with elec-

Industrial Casualties.

From a chart which was exhibited by a leading insurance company of America at an international exposition of safety and sanitation, it would follow that there are 25,000 fatal industrial accidents a year in the United States, and about 300,000 injuries. This inspires a writer on the new industrialism to say: "The mere possibility of being able to state in statistics the approximate number of our industrial casualties is a step in advance, for as late as 1900 it was impossible to estimate with any accuracy at all what was the toll we paid in crushed limbs and snuffed out lives. Now, at least, we know how vast is the problem to be solved, how much needless suffering we inflict and how much we lose in dollars and cents because we have hitherto failed to realize the necessity of guarding men as well as machines."

She Won't Believe It.

We don't suppose that it will ever be possible to convince a woman that a neat little round hole in the sitting room rug, where a small amount of ignited tobacco happened to fall, merely serves to make the place look home-like.—(Ohio State Journal)

Limitations of the Human Eye.

The greatest astronomers, like Sir William Herschel, have made their most valuable discoveries by comparatively low power telescopes. The eye of man, unless some new laws of optics are discovered, will never be able to see any small object on the moon, no matter how powerful our telescopes are made. We may see mountains and craters—that is about all.

Morality and Intelligence.

It almost looks as if intelligence and morality were two distinct things, and that it is safer to have intelligence than morality. A person who has the former may get off scot-free, but to him of weak intelligence his morality is of little avail when it suits the purpose of those who have the power of sequestrating him, to use it.—Exchange.

Different sections of the property are restricted as to cost of the dwellings to be built, running from $2,000 for the lots on Bostwick avenue, to $5,000 for the choice lots facing the handsome residence of Mr. King.

Bostwick Park will be formally opened for sale, Monday, January 25, and the sale will continue every day until all the lots are sold. On Monday presents will be given away to all who attend the sale, and free automobiles will run to the property.

We predict that Bostwick Park will have a wonderful sale and that the choice lots will be snapped quickly by investors and home builders. Daytona is coming to its own. Eyes are turning this way from all directions and a

Madam, here is the PROOF of Goodness

Here's one cotton comfort that doesn't "pack down" after it's been in use a short while. It is called the "Maish."
We were curious to know why the

Maish Cotton Down Comfort

kept fluffy so long. We found that the filling in Maish Comforts is made of extra-long curled cotton of finest quality, but woven differently from any comfort we have ever seen—woven by a special process which absolutely prevents "packing," "bunching," and "lumping."

We found, too, that Maish Comforts were absolutely sanitary, made of the purest materials, under ideal conditions, and that they were twice as warm as any ordinary comfort of equal weight.

We believe these are just the sort of comforts you would like to put in your baby's crib, or on your children's bed, as well as your own.

And you are sure to like the pretty covers in a variety of pretty patterns in lovely art shades. Step into our bedding department some day and ask to see our assortment of Maish Comforts.

"CABIRIA" STARTS TONIGHT AT NEW DAYTONA THEATER

The following from the Augusta Chronicle gives an idea of how popular "Cabiria" becomes in every town exhibited:

"Every child in the city must see 'Cabiria,' and it has been arranged to give a special matinee Saturday so that no child will have to miss this remarkable picture for lack of the admission price."

"Yesterday, both afternoon and evening, there were large crowds at the Grand, and many who have seen it before have returned, for there is much to see; so much to learn in this stupendous production that many go to see it several times."

"There will be a large attendance this afternoon and tonight, and Saturday afternoon will bring out the largest attendance of the week when the school boys and girls will turn out in full force to see that wonderful picture of life in ancient Carthage and Rome, with the beautiful heroine, Cabiria; the magnificent queen of Carthage; the giant slave, Nantiste; the noble young Roman, Fulvius; the wicked high priest, Karvallo, and the hundreds of characters that act in this marvelous picture."

DISORDERLY TOM HALL FEATURE OF MATINEE TODAY AT CITY HALL

In the municipal court, Thursday morning, Rufus Edwards, colored, entered a plea of guilty to the offense of "speeding" an automobile on the city streets. In consideration of Rufe's full and free confession and apparent penitence, Mayor Titus dealt leniently with him, imposing a fine of $5, at the same time remarking that the "war's on and the city needs the money."

Burdened with a freshly-scarred temple, a "hangover" head that must have felt as big as a sugar hogshead, and a lately acquired timorous disposition, Thomas Hall, very black and probably very proud of a huge mop of kinky "worsted" (otherwise he'd have it mowed), answered present and also guilty when the case charging him with disorderly conduct was sounded. The mayor didn't doubt that Thomas was guilty, but was afraid that Thomas was at heart a sort of Doubting Thomas himself, as he claimed to have been too drunk to remember anything. Wherefore, the majestic power of the law was set in motion to ascertain whether or not Thomas or anybody else had any right to doubt that he had been disorderly. The mayor's course was amply justified, for it transpired that Hall—that is, Thomas—had climbed on the outside of better than a pint of bad booze, entered a business place in Midway, ripped and roared and reared "round a little while, and was then, after offering considerable resistance, taken in charge by Colored Officer Taylor and locked up. In one of his prisoner's pockets Gad found a brand-new type of dangerous weapon—a piece of heavy cord attached to a steel bolt that might have been used to hold the lid on a small volcano. (Persons who doubt this will please call at the city hall arsenal and get their own evidence.) Thomas "found" the thing down by the "deppo," but he had not the slightest idea of employing it for any purpose except to weight his pockets and keep them from jumping wrong side out—evidently he was broke. However, the Daily News man observed that Tom was an adept at attaching the weapon to his wrist after the most approved slungshot style. Mayor Titus must have noticed the same thing, for he commanded the prisoner to pay the city $12.00 in cash or 20 days' labor for his fun.

Thomas went back to jail a confirmed doubter—doubtful, judging by his sorrowful countenance, that there were 12 "bones" in the whole, wide world.

NEWS OF THE HOTELS

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Holmes, of Atlantic City, N. J., who have lately been at the Gables, left yesterday morning for their home. Mr. Holmes is a well-known railroad man in that city and says Daytona is the most beautiful winter resort in Florida.

R. S. Bullard, who has spent several previous seasons at the Morgan hotel, arrived from his Springfield, Ill. home Wednesday, and is again at the Morgan. Mr. Bullard is well acquainted in "the prettiest winter resort in the world," and his many friends will welcome his return.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Gilbert and Mr. and Mrs. George H. Cole were members of a touring party originally hailing from Troy, N. Y., but more lately of Jacksonville, which stopped at the Morgan over Monday and Tuesday. The party were so enthusiastic over Daytona that they have decided to spend the winter here, having rented a South Ridgewood avenue home for the season.

As the season grows apace, many of the small hotels are filled to capacity, while the larger are comfortably filled with winter sojourners. In the afternoon, automobile and carriage drives, cards, tennis, billiards, quito, croquet and the unsurpassable music of Sarcina's band, vie with one another for the visiting public's favor, while in the evening, the theatres, dancing and cards offer allurements to all. Truly, "this is the life."

Romance Versus Matter of Fact

By OSCAR COX

There is a little Indian girl up on Hudson bay who has never been out of her native woods. She speaks poetically, as all aboriginals do. Her vocabulary is small, but she makes up for the deficiency of words in imagery. One summer Miss Susan Jones, a matter of fact young woman as ever trod the soil, took it into her head to spend her vacation in upper Canada. These two met in the Indian girl's home on the banks of the Little White river. Miss Jones said she had heard much of Indian legends and asked—didn't get the girl's name; Miss Jones said it was Minnie-Something-or-Other—to tell her one. Thereupon the Indian told the following story:

"Abasca was the daughter of a great chief, who lived long, long ago when the first white man came to this country. She had never seen any man except a—"

"Indian," suggested Miss Jones.

"She had only seen the dusky men of the forest like herself. The first man to come was tall as the young pine, straight as the arrow and his eye was that of the eagle. Abasca saw him, and her heart flew to him like the bird."

"A case of love at first sight, you mean?"

"Abasca was loved by Stormwind, the son of a chief. Stormwind was brave as the water that leaps from the rock, and his arrow could pierce the leaf that trembles at the top of the tree."

"A regular William Tell," Miss Jones interrupted.

"He had not the heart to give way to another. He was not born to know that to love Abasca truly he should give her to the man she loved. The white man might do that, not the Indian. Stormwind learned that she had given her heart to the white man, and he resolved that the white man should die."

"Stormwind made this vow at the season when in this country the lamp never goes out at night."

"Did they use kerosene or oil?"

"For the winter had passed when the sun at midday is small and cold in the south. The white man was in the wood where he hunted the fox and the mink and the otter. Stormwind followed the trail and came to his enemy when the sun stood high above their heads."

"Trapper," said Stormwind.

"What a funny name! I like Stormwind much better."

"The white man may come; the white man may hunt the fox and the mink and the otter; he may ride in his boat over the waves of the great bay, but he shall not take the maiden from the Indian."

"When he said this Stormwind fitted an arrow to his bow. It may be he had never seen the white man's rifle; it may be he had never seen the white man raise the rifle quickly to his shoulder and the deer far away drop dead. Before he had fitted his arrow to his bow and pointed it at his enemy the white man's eye ran along the barrel of his weapon."

"Trapper had the drop on him, hadn't he? How thrilling! Go on!"

"Stormwind," he said, "put back your arrow into your quiver before I send the lead into your heart. Abasca is yours. I do not wed here in the forest. The white man loves the white woman, not the Indian squaw."

"From the woods came a piercing shriek. The white man lowered his rifle and the red man his bow. It was a woman's voice they heard. From a cliff near by it came again, fainter, but more despairing than before. It was the echo."

"For heaven's sake, what was it? A spook?"

"It was the will of Abasca. She had seen Stormwind go away with the look of an angry Manitou on his brow, and she knew that he was going to fight the man she loved. Seizing a rifle from the tree, she followed her dusky lover and saw him when he spoke to—"

"Trapper."

"She held her rifle to her shoulder ready when Stormwind was about to send his arrow to his rival's heart or when the white man raised his rifle to kill the man she did not love."

"She must have been awfully rattled."

"When she heard the white man say he did not love her she dropped her rifle, giving a cry that caused the white cloud sailing in the heavens above to tremble."

"I wonder she hadn't shot the brute."

"Then the white man and the Indian went in the direction from whence the sound came and saw on a high rock the form of Abasca. She was on the edge of a deep cliff beneath her, swaying here and there as the branch is moved by the wind. Then slowly her head bowed over the chasm, and as the bird folds its wings and drops her beautiful form descended to death."

"You wouldn't catch me doing that for the handsomest man that ever lived. What did the men do then?"

"The white man went back to the white man's country; the Indian went out on the bay, and the storm wind, for which he was named, arose and claimed him."

"I'll bet that man Trapper was paying alimony to some woman in the states. He was just mean enough to fool that poor Indian girl."

Encourage Children to Play.

Play gives joy, freedom, contentment and occupation. A child who plays thoroughly, with perseverance and determination, will be thorough and persevering in life. Children are full of imagination, which finds expression in their games and play. A child's world is very real. Blocks, balls, water colors, scrap books, sands, spoons or garden tools have a significance for him.

Patient Creditor.

"You all time growlin' 'bout 'de devil ter pay," said Brother Williams. "In der name er goodness an' hoss sense why don' you pay him an' call it quits? Wouldn't dat be much better'n writin' ter have a full settlement hereafter? When dat time comes he'll han' you yo' change in brimstone what'll burn yo' pocket mo'n what yo' money does now. 'Pears ter me dat's wuth studyin' 'bout. De devil is de only creditor I knows on what's willin' ter wait a lifetime, but it's only de fool what takes advantage of his willin'ness. You better write dat on de wall an' de ceilin' what ain't got no cracks in it!"—F. L. Stanton, in the Atlanta Constitution.

Siberian Squirrels.

More than four million five hundred thousand gray squirrels were killed last year in Siberia for their fur. The tails alone weighed more than twenty-one tons. The animal figuring next in the fur trade of Asiatic Russia, in point of numbers, was the white hare, which contributed 1,500,000 skins.

Environment.

"Economics changes man's activities. As you change a man's activities you change his way of living, and as you change his environment and as you change his state of mind. Pre-concept and injunction do not perceptibly affect men; but food, water, air, clothing, shelter, pictures, books, music, will and do."

BOSTWICK PARK

The best improved and best located subdivision ever developed in Daytona will be opened for sale

Monday, January 25, 1915

The unique "Tag Sale" system of selling land will be used in the sale of this beautiful property.

Be Your Own Salesman

Tag Sale System---The Modern Method of Selling Land

The services of an auctioneer are no longer required at a modern lot sale to tell you what to buy and the price to pay for the same. You can be your own salesman and make up your mind about your future home or investment yourself.

The tag sale system has been originated and is now being used by the leading operators in this country. Our company has sold as many as 200 lots in a single day under this plan.

There are two cards on each of the lots we have for sale. The lots open for sale are indicated by flags of all nations at the stakes, on the inside of the stakes you find the tags. The tag outside contains the number of the lot, the price and terms and instructions that if you desire that lot to tear off the tag and present to the agent on the grounds or at our downtown office, and make your deposit of the cash payment. When the price tag is torn off by the purchaser there is left to view a tag marked "SOLD;" when you see one of these on the lot you know the same is no longer open for sale; our salesmen mark these lots sold on their plats. Under this system there is no confusion, no lots being sold twice, we have had a crowd of as many as 2,000 people in a single day under this system.

The Biggest Chance of Your Life is now offered you in Bostwick Park. There you can find all the advantages you could desire for either a home or investment. Favored first by location and natural beauty, this tract has an advantage that few places in the state enjoy. It offers those who locate there the pleasures of salt water and the finest Ocean Beach in the world on one side, and the deep waters of the Halifax River on the other. Located just across the South Bridge, only five minutes from the business center of Daytona.

Values Already Established

The neighborhood values have already been established as the surrounding property is built up with modern homes and the property comprising Bostwick Park would have been built up many years ago had it not been held off the market and could not be purchased for any price until recently. There is now being built on the river front at Bostwick Park by E. L. King, a palatial winter home which, when completed, will be the most costly in this section, and there has been completed on the Ocean front of Bostwick Park a home costing ten thousand dollars. Ed Oates also has plans made for a home to be built on the lot on Silver Beach Avenue, Bostwick Park, which will cost more than five thousand dollars.

Bostwick Park Improvements

The property will be fully improved by the owners and these improvements will be free to the purchasers of the lots, there will be no special assessments. Every street, except Peninsula Drive and Atlantic Avenue will be made a boulevard, with palm trees, eucalyptus and ornamental shrubs in the center and hard surfaced on both sides. Concrete sidewalks will be built in front of every lot. Ornamental columns at the entrances of the streets, with electric lights on top. The property has all city conveniences, including city water, electric lights, gas and telephone.

Merchants Bank, Depository

The Merchants Bank is the depository of this beautiful property, and all collections are made at this bank. They deliver all contracts and deeds to Bostwick Park. F. N. Conrad and Bert Fish are the owners of Bostwick Park.

The present owners bought the land from an estate at a great bargain, and you will get the benefit of same by purchasing in Bostwick Park.

Bargain Prices

Thirty Special Lots, $400 to $775, ten per cent cash and the balance easy payments, $10 to $19 monthly, no taxes. Choice Boulevard Lots, $775 to $2750, one-quarter cash, balance within three years, to suit purchaser. Ocean Front Lots on the Atlantic, $1750 to $2800, one-third cash and balance within three years. All improvements including paved streets, five-foot concrete sidewalks, ornamental columns, trees and shrubs, city water, electric lights, gas and telephones. All lots ready now for building. Six per cent interest on deferred payments. Eight per cent discount for cash.

Desirable Restrictions

Desirable restrictions as to the character and cost of the buildings and a uniform building line of 30 feet back from the front line of the lots so as to give the property a park-like appearance. The restrictions are reasonable and are designed not to hinder but to encourage building of a kind that will enhance the value of every lot. It is in line with our purpose to develop and maintain Bostwick Park as a strictly residential section.

Building Prices

$2,500.00 in Gold Given Away To Stimulate Building.

To stimulate building we offer special prizes from $100 to $250, amounting in all to $2500, to those who commence building dwellings in Bostwick Park before April, 1915, and who complete their houses according to our desirable restrictions before September 1st, 1915.

Fifteen prizes in all distributed in the following manner:

For the first four dwellings costing not less than $5,000 to erect, $250 in gold for each house built.

For the first eight dwellings costing not less than $2,500 each to erect, $150 in gold for each house built.

For the first three dwellings costing not less than $2,000 to erect, $100 in gold for each house built.

Making a total of Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars in building prizes.

Perfect Title

The title to Bostwick Park is absolutely perfect and each purchaser will receive without cost an original abstract of title, and an opinion by one of the leading attorneys of this state attached to same.

Back to Land

The people are turning back to real estate for investments, the recent fluctuations in stocks and bonds has proven that the same are not substantial and cannot be depended upon in times of depression in financial matters.

Every human being alive today ought to be interested in owning a piece of land. It is the land to which we have to look for new wealth. The land feeds us and clothes us and gives us strength. It is the only property that never burns up, blows away or can be destroyed by floods; the only source of supply that never fails us. Land is the basis of all wealth.

POPULAR LUNCHEONS AT HOTEL CLARENDON

COTTAGERS, RATHER THAN BE TROUBLED WITH PREPARATION OF NOONDAY MEAL GO TO HO-TEL.

Among the large number of transient guests who took luncheon at the Clarendon on Wednesday were Mrs.
M. O. Bingham, and Miss Bingham, of Daytona; Mrs. Frank Hooker Alfred, of Detroit, Mich., and Mrs.
Ralph B. Fuller Nye, of Narragansett Pier, was also on the extra list for lunch at the big hotel yesterday.

As the season advances there is a noticeable increase every day in the number who frequent the main dining hall at lunch time. From a half a dozen on the opening day the number of patrons has steadily grown until now there are scores of winter residents in the immediate vicinity, who,
rather than prepare a noon day meal, run over to the Clarendon and enjoy lunch there.

The custom of dining out is also indulged in by many of the wealthy class of cottagers with small families, who find it more satisfactory to sit down to a course dinner prepared by an expert than to personally assume the responsibility that it entails.

In the Darkest Hour.

When weary life, breathing reluctant breath, hath no hope sweeter than the hope of death; then the best counsel and the best relief to cheer the spirit or to cheat the grief, the only calm, the only comfort heard, comes in the music of a woman's word.—Edwin Arnold.

ARRIVALS OF A DAY AT HOTEL CLARENDON

Late arrivals at the Clarendon include Mrs. Peter McCourt and maid, of Denver, Colo., and Sherman Brown, of the same city; Mr. and Mrs. L.
Hess, of New York city; Mr. and Mrs.
George S. Dickey, Baltimore, Md.; C.
E. Phenix, Murray Bay. Several parties from New York and Chicago are expected to arrive tomorrow to take up their reservations for the balance of the season.

His Object.

"So you want to reduce your weight?" said the physical culture expert. "No," replied the caller, "I merely want to get into some sort of athletic activity that will permit me to wear clothes that are really light and cool in warm weather."

SECOND PARTY OF HELP FOR CLARENDON ARRIVED

The second party of Clarendon help, consisting of dining room waitresses, kitchen and laundry help, arrived last night, having reached Jacksonville at 2:09 a. m., via the Merchants & Miners Line from Boston, Mass. There were 37 in the party, of which 22 will be employed in the hotel dining room. Still another party of short season help will leave Boston to reach here about Feb. 1st, when the big hotel is expected to be filled to capacity. It was authoritatively stated yesterday that not more than 50 per cent of the applications for reservations for February and March could possibly be accommodated by the Clarendon management.

HOW MANY TIMES HAVE YOU SAID

"IF I HAD ONLY BOUGHT LOTS OVER ON THE BEACH WHEN I FIRST CAME HERE I MIGHT HAVE BEEN RICH TODAY. I COULD HAVE BOUGHT ACRES FOR THE PRICE AT WHICH SINGLE LOTS ARE SELLING TODAY. ACREAGE CANNOT BE BOUGHT AT ANY PRICE. WHAT A FOOL I WAS." LET US POINT OUT A WAY FOR YOU TO GET IN AND MAKE UP.

DID YOU IMAGINE SUCH A THING AS A STREET CAR LINE TO THE BEACH FIVE YEARS AGO? PERHAPS YOU DID IMAGINE IT—IT IS A REALITY NOW. WOULD YOU HAVE BEGGED, BORROWED, OR ARRANGED IN SOME WAY TO GET HOLD OF ENOUGH MONEY TO BUY SOME BEACH PROPERTY, COULD YOU HAVE BEEN ASSURED THAT A CAR LINE WAS GOING TO BE BUILT TO YOUR PROPERTY? IF ANYONE COULD HAVE TOLD YOU POSITIVELY THAT THE CLARENDON HOTEL WAS GOING TO BE BUILT WHERE IT IS, WOULD YOU NOT HAVE DONE LIKEWISE, BOUGHT ALL THE PROPERTY POSSIBLE, ACCORDING TO YOUR MEANS? COULD ANYONE HAVE ASSURED YOU THAT THE NAUTILUS PROPERTY WAS TO BE IMPROVED AS IT IS TODAY—THAT A BASEBALL PARK WAS TO BE BUILT WHERE IT IS, WOULD YOU NOT HAVE BOUGHT ALL THE PROPERTY YOU COULD HAVE GOT HOLD OF?

THE STREET CAR LINE IS NOW BEING EXTENDED THROUGH OCEAN VIEW HEIGHTS, WHICH WILL PUT IT WITHIN TWELVE MINUTES' RIDE OF DOWNTOWN. COMPARE THE PRICES OF SEABREEZE LOTS WITH THE PRICES WE ARE ASKING FOR OCEAN VIEW HEIGHTS LOTS. WE ARE OFFERING THE OCEAN FRONT LOTS, WHICH ARE FIFTY BY THREE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-FOUR, AT SIX HUNDRED AND NINETY-FIVE DOLLARS EACH, WHILE THE INSIDE LOTS, FIFTY BY ONE HUN-DRED AND FORTY, ARE OFFERED AT ONE HUNDRED AND SEVENTY DOLLARS EACH. A TWENTY-FIVE PER CENT PAYMENT IS ALL THAT IS REQUIRED DOWN, WITH EASY TERMS.

WERE WE TO PREDICT THAT WITHIN A FEW YEARS THE ENTIRE BEACH WILL HAVE A BOARD-WALK WITH AN OCEAN PIER, LARGE HOTELS, WHICH WILL COMPARE FAVORABLY WITH THOSE OF ATLANTIC CITY. THAT STREET CAR LINES WILL CONNECT WITH DELAND, NEW SMYRNA, SANFORD, ORLANDO AND OTHER INTERIOR POINTS. YOU WOULD CALL US DREAMERS, BUT WE ARE PREDICTING JUST THAT VERY THING. NOW THINK OF WHAT THIS WILL MEAN TO THE PROPERTY ON THE BEACH. NOW IS THE TIME, MR. READER, TO GET IN ON THE GROUND FLOOR WHILE THESE PRICES ARE REDICULOUSLY LOW, FOR WHEN ALL THESE THINGS SHALL HAVE TAKEN PLACE THE PRICES NATURALLY WILL BE WAY UP, AND YOU SHOULD BE THE ONE TO REAP THE BENEFIT, FOR ONCE IN YOUR LIFE PUT YOURSELF IN THE POSITION WHERE THE OTHER FELLOW WILL HAVE TO SAY, "YOU HAVE MADE A LOT OF MONEY ON LOTS WHICH YOU WERE FARSIGHTED ENOUGH TO PURCHASE WHEN THE PRICES WERE LOW."

IT'S NOT LUCK—IT IS JUST GOOD BUSINESS SENSE—TAKING ADVANTAGE OF AN OPPORTUNITY—AN OPPORTUNITY THAT DOES NOT COME EVERY DAY, AND YOU SHOULD NOT DELAY. IT WILL BE A PLEASURE TO DEMONSTRATE THE PROPERTY TO YOU, IF YOU WILL GIVE US THE OPPORTUNITY, AND TELL YOU OF THE CONTEMPLATED IMPROVEMENTS AND ANY FURTHER PARTICULARS THAT YOU MAY DESIRE. NOW IS THE TIME TO INVESTIGATE. OPPORTUNITY IS KNOCKING AT YOUR DOOR. DON'T PASS IT UP.

RED STAR CAR LINE AGAIN

IN OPERATION FOR SEASON

A familiar sign of the tourist season is the appearance again on the streets of the Red Star auto cars, which are now making trips to both New Smyrna and Ormond, as was done by the line last winter. Cars will leave this city for New Smyrna at 9:30 a. m., and returning leave that city at 2:15 p. m. The Ormond trip will be made by the peninsula road or by the ocean beach when the tides permit. The Red Star cars are easy and comfortable and are well known here from their service of the past two or three seasons under the management of A. W. Seville. The Clark drug store is headquarters for the line for either the New Smyrna or Ormond trips and schedules and other information may be obtained at that place.

DOUBLE HEADER AT BASKET BALL

DAYTONA HIGH SCHOOL TEAM TO PLAY SEABREEZE AND STETSON TEAMS AT ARCADE AMUSEMENT HALL.

Tomorrow night will be bargain night for the hundreds of basket ball fans of the city, as two fast games will be staged at the Arcade Amusement hall. The first will be a strongly contested battle between the D. H. S. "regulars" and the fast team from Stetson, while in the afternoon the rest of the D. H. S. bunch will endeavor to send the Seabreeze quintet back to "Sand-crab" land on the wrong end of the score. (Wrong from the Seabreeze point of view, of course).

D. H. S. has recorded one victory over the Stetson team this year, and while the college boys have been strengthened since their last encounter, the locals seem confident that the result will be satisfactory to local followers of the game. S. H. S. has also fallen before D. H. S. in a game between these teams which was played at the Nautilus casino early in the year, and will make a strong effort to come back.

D. H. S. is still after that state championship, and it should be borne in mind that the one game lost to Miami on the recent trip is regarded even in Miami, as more or less of a fluke. Had Drake been in the game it is practically certain that D. H. S. would have won. At any rate the boys triumphed over Ft. Lauderdale, which had been previously undefeated, and had handily beaten Miami in a game at the "Magic City." Friends of D. H. S. should make it a point to attend the game tomorrow evening and encourage the boys by "rooting" for them. The regular price will admit to both games.

Ours is a National BANK

Before the UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT granted us a charter to do a banking business, they made themselves absolutely sure that there was both CHARACTER and money behind our bank. A National Bank is restricted in doing business according to the National Banking laws, and the U. S. Government Bank Examiners see that these are observed.

Besides this, the good names of reliable men of financial responsibility are behind our bank.

Do YOUR banking with US.

HANDSOME QUARTERS FOR ATHLETIC CLUB

WILL BE COMPLETED EARLY

NEXT MONTH—PROVISION FOR

EXCLUSIVE MEMBERSHIP OF 200 LADIES AND GENTLEMEN.

Commanding a most enchanting view of the Atlantic, a few hundred yards north of the Nautilus casino, the handsome home of the Daytona Athletic club is nearing completion, and Manager L. D. Brooks is busily engaged in supervising the finishing touches on the structure and working out the details of the interior and exterior appointments.

The club house proper is a two-story edifice of wood, concrete and coquina rock, and its dimensions are in liberal proportions to the purposes it is expected to serve. On the ground floor are several large rooms designed to meet the requirements of the club's members. One of these rooms is being fitted up with a repository for guns, and another—the main room—contains a great open fireplace, and is to be made comfortable and attractive with Flemish oak furniture and oriental rugs. On the second floor are chambers for visitors who may desire to remain at the club overnight. Adjoining is a commodious and modernly equipped lavatory and retiring room. Across the hall from this is still another convenience in the form of a chamber containing 200 lockers.

Fifty feet east of the club building is a pavilion sufficiently large to accommodate some scores of dancers. This pavilion is to be made pleasing to the eye with coats of paint and with overhanging festoons of Spanish moss, which will serve to soften the glare of electric lights behind and produce a novel effect.

But a little distance north of the club house lie the shooting grounds and here are being introduced a "trap" and other appurtenances necessary to constitute an ideal plant where one's liking for the sport of shooting clay pigeons may be indulged.

In the building and about the grounds are being installed electric lighting fixtures and the whole will be prettily and adequately illuminated at night.

The membership of the Daytona Athletic club will be exclusive and it is now planned to limit it to 200. Manager Brooks states that the ladies will be urgently invited to enjoy all of the privileges that are accorded to gentlemen.

It is expected that the physical preparations for the club's organization will have been completed on or about the first of February.

In the Nursery.

The temperature of the nursery should be about 65 degrees F. It is wise to have a thermometer in the room. This precaution is well worth taking, for a not infrequent cause of dyspepsia in the very young is the overheating of the nursery. The night temperature should be about 62 degrees F. As the child grows older it is not necessary to keep the temperature of the room above 58 degrees F. The windows should always be well opened when the child is absent from the nursery and each evening before the child is put to bed. This practice should be followed for a few minutes. To secure adequate ventilation, if there be an open fireplace, is not difficult, either by having the window opened very slightly at the top or by means of the door. It is an excellent idea where practicable to have an adjustable ventilator in the window itself. Currents of air are to be avoided.

Just Possible.

It is not so many years since that there was found in Morayshire an ancient iron hound (door knocker) of rude and ponderous workmanship which one valiant Scottish antiquary did not hesitate to suggest might have been the very implement which so awoke the echoes of that memorable night at Macbeth's castle, says a writer in the House Beautiful.
